Apollo 7

Frontiers of Flight Museum was founded in 1988 by U.S. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison, Bill Cooper and Jan Collmer. The Museum, a Smithsonian Affiliate, focuses upon educating, inspiring & motivating the "next generation" in science, math and technology by utilizing aviation as a backdrop.

Proceeds from The Collmer Classic will directly impact The Museum's science, math and technology & education programs.

A portion of this year's proceeds will benefit Challenge Air for Kids and Friends.

Challenge Air for Kids and Friends, a non-profit organization offers motivational, inspirational, and life-changing experiences to children and youth living with physical challenges and serious illnesses through aviation.
